to the federal government and it has been approved. Since ve dropped significantly.

Junction on the China Lakes Naval Weapons Center property has the sulfide, but has not yet done so because the standard does not apply worked with the geothermal developers to minimize the emissions from velopment without a violation of the standard off the base.

Network Plan: April 20, 2011

Monitoring Plan Appendix

April 7, 2011
Owens Lake
Supplemental Control Requirements

Notice of Preparation
Casa Diablo Geothermal

Phase 7a Abatement
Staff Report and Exhibits

Phase 8 Dust Controls
Public Hearing Dec. 6, 2010

Mono Basin PM10 SIP
Reasonable Further Progress
September 2010

Coso Junction PM10
Maintenance Plan
March 24, 2010

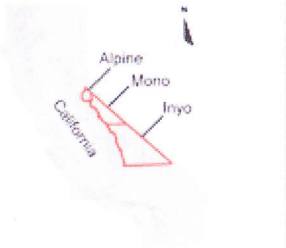
Technical System Audit of the California Environmental Protection Agency Air Resources Board

In the News



Great Basin Unified Air Pollution Control District boundaries.

66209 Unique GBUAPCD Visits

Last Updated: May 5, 2011 | Contact Webmaster | © Great Basin Unified Air Pollution Control District